Pupil Premium Allocation

Rushden Primary Academy analyse data to identify which pupils are underachieving and why and which interventions are most successful. The money is then allocated to support the core areas of literacy and numeracy; we know what we want to achieve from our interventions and evaluate the progress regularly.

Action/ Expenditure	Amount PP spend	Description and Objective of Expenditure	Desired Outcome/ Success Criteria	Impact/ Evaluation
To appoint a part time intervention teacher	£10600	To ensure that the children receive specific interventions to facilitate desired progress outcomes	This will ensure the children make progress in line with non PP children
To pay for the use of a SALT professional to work with individual children	£1000	Children with specific SALT needs are supported and make accelerated progress	This will ensure the children with speech and language barriers make good progress
